

MALACHI DADS PRISON MINISTRY

Restoring Fathers. Rebuilding Families.

Something Remarkable Is Happening

250 fathers in 35 small groups across 5 prisons meet each week with volunteers from 11 churches, learning to follow Christ and restore relationships with their families.

When a father changes, a generation changes.
When generations change, communities change.

A Ministry of Reconciliation

Malachi Dads is based on Malachi 4:6:

“He will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers.”

Who Can Volunteer?

Everyday Christian men willing to share God’s Word with men eager to grow in Christ. No experience is required — our Christian books guide the discussions.

Why Volunteer?

Prisoners are often forgotten.

Yet Jesus said: “I was in prison and you visited me” (Matthew 25:36).

Many inmates receive no visitors.

You may be the only Christian father figure some of these men ever meet.

For many volunteers, this evening becomes the highlight of their week.

What Inmates Are Saying

- “I was able to reconcile with my father and daughter.”
- “The volunteers were the best people I met during my incarceration.”
- “Malachi Dads should be in every unit.”

Could God Be Calling You?

Most people will never walk through a prison gate for Christ.

But some will.

Scan to watch two short videos about the impact of the Malachi Dads ministry.

Visitors are welcome to attend one of our meetings to “come and see.”

info@faithprisonministry.org | faithprisonministry.org

Facebook: faithprisonministry– Malachi Dads