

Malachi Dads Prison Ministry – Transforming Lives

Join Us in Making a Difference! Malachi Dads is mentoring 220 inmates weekly in 35 small groups across six local prison facilities. This ministry impacts inmates, their families, and future generations by breaking chains of bondage and fostering reconciliation.

A Ministry of Reconciliation: Based on Malachi 4:6, Malachi Dads restores the hearts of fathers to their children and children to their fathers. Sixty volunteers from 11 local churches lead small groups in prisons—much like home Bible studies—where men learn to become godly fathers, husbands, and leaders using Christian books.

Who Can Volunteer? Everyday Christian men willing to share God's Word with men eager to grow in Christ. No experience needed—the books guide the discussions.

Why Volunteer? Prisoners are often forgotten, yet Jesus said: “I was in prison, and you visited me” (Matt. 25:36). Many inmates have no visitors, so your visit is deeply meaningful. For many volunteers, this night becomes the highlight of their week.

What to Expect: Meetings are held in the prison chapel. You will meet with the same group of men and bonds of trust will form. Men are selected by chaplains for good behavior and a sincere desire to grow. Visitors are welcome to attend one of our meetings on a special pass to “come and see.”

You're Too Busy? Just try one semester. Even a short commitment has an eternal impact.

Inmate Feedback:

- ‘I was able to reconcile with my father...’ ‘I reconnected with my daughter...’
- ‘The volunteers were the best people I have ever met during my incarceration’
- ‘When someone takes their time out to visit when they could be home is great’
- ‘Malachi Dads should be in every unit’

Transformation: Prison ministry doesn't just change inmates—it transforms volunteers as well. You will grow in your faith and help others to do the same.
